

Phelps residents voted Tuesday night against a referendum asking to purchase or lease property for broadband expansion in the town.

The referendum was voted down 230 to 164.

The question posed on the ballot read as follows: "Would you support using taxpayers' dollars to purchase or lease property and equipment for the expansion of broadband throughout the town of Phelps?" ___PUBLIC___